well-to-do farmer living about five miles from Ripley, while engaged in putting a new roof on his residence Monday afternoon, fell to the ground a distance of fifteen feet, dislocating his arm at the elbow and sustaining other serious injuries.The grand jury of Bourbon County at a recent term reported twenty-five indictments each against Josh Barton and J. A. Grimes, of Millersburg, for selling handled his text. This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock an instruction will be given exclusively for married ladies. All are invited to attend. This evening at 7:30, service as usual. To-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock an instruction will be given for the single ladies. All are most cordially invited to be present at these services, irrespective of creed.The little packet Katie Prather had bad luck on her trip to Cincinnati last Sunday. While making a landing at Columbia that night a small barge she had in tow sank, and without any known cause. There were forty-nine hogs on the barge, and as soon as its condition was discovered the crew took the pens down and threw the hogs overboard. All were recovered with the exception of four, two of which were drowned and two got away. Some household goods on the flat were in the water but not damaged to any extent. The Champion No. 10 pumped the barge out Monday.Gilbert-Huntley Comedy Comedy.

The Gilbert-Huntley Comedy Company continues at the opera house with a large attendance every night. To-night the entertainment will commence with the one-act farce, entitled "The Fool of the Family," and will conclude with the "Pink Dominoes," a comedy in three acts.

TWO BUILDINGS BURNED.

Fires Becoming Rather Frequent in the Town of Chester—Are Incendiaries at Work?The town of Chester was the scene of another fire about noon yesterday, and still another at 2 o'clock this morning.
The place seems to be rather unfortunate of late in this respect.About 11 o'clock yesterday morning the residence of Mrs. Mary Clinger was discovered on fire. The alarm was given but the flames made rapid headway, and by the time the citizens arrived on the scene the building was doomed. The people recognized this and directed their efforts to saving the furniture and the buildings adjoining. This they succeeded in doing, although it required hard work to prevent the flames from spreading to the frame residence of Geo. W. Holliday, adjoining it on the west.Mrs. Clinger's house was burned to the ground and will prove a total loss. It was situated nearly opposite the postoffice, and was a small one-story frame.
The loss is rather heavy for Mrs. Clinger, as the building was about the only property she owned, and it was not insured. The loss amounts to $500 or $600.The building either caught from a spark or was set on fire. At the hour named Mrs. Clinger had gone to a grocery near by, leaving no one at home. When she returned the roof of the rear part of the building was found to be in flames.
There is some mystery connected with the matter, and it may turn out that the house was fired by an incendiary.George Harding came very near meeting with a severe accident while working to save Mr. Holliday's residence. He was on the roof and slipped, and it was only by prompt action on his part that he escaped from sliding into the fire below.The Neptun fire engine was taken up but arrived too late to be of much service.The one-story building belonging to George W. Holliday, alluded to above, was totally destroyed by fire about 2 o'clock this morning. The flames were undoubtedly the work of incendiaries, as there was no other way in which the building could have caught. The house was unoccupied last night as the fire yesterday had compelled the parties living in it to move out. Mr. Holliday's loss will amount to $700 or $800. He had $600 insurance on the building in the London and Liverpool and Globe.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT.

Tendered Miss Belle Gilbert—She Accepts—Next Friday Night the Date—"Frou-Frou" the Play.During the engagement of the Gilbert Comedy Company here Miss Belle Gilbert's acting has won her many warm admirers. To express their admiration, they have tendered her a complimentary benefit. She accepts, and will appear at the opera house next Friday night. The following has been handed in for publication:MAYSVILLE, KY., Oct. 31, 1887.
Compliments of the undersigned to Miss Belle Gilbert, tendering her a complimentary benefit upon any evening, in the near future, most agreeable to her, and requesting that

And many others.MISS GILBERT'S REPLY.
MAYSVILLE, KY., Nov. 1st, 1887.
Dear Sirs: Your kind note was handed me this morning. Please accept thanks for the many courtesies. It gives me great pleasure to say to you that Friday evening next, Nov.
5th, would be most suitable for me, and my favorite play, that of Frou-Frou, never having been played in your city, would be the most agreeable to me to be tendered upon that occasion, and shall endeavor to please all who shall favor us with their presence.
Very Truly,
BELLE GILBERT.Thos. D. Crump's View on Fairness.
A Journal reporter called on Mr.
Thomas D. Crump and said: "I understand that you drew a prize in the Louisiana State Lottery drawing of the 9th ultimo?" "I did." "What was your ticket?" "29 148." "Did it represent the whole or a part of the prize?" "A part —one-tenth of the second capital." "What amount?" "$5,000." "Did you receive the full amount the ticket represented?"
"I received the full amount eight days after the ticket had drawn." How did you collect the money?" "Our Jonesburg (Mo.) Bank collected it through the Laclede Bank of St. Louis and paid it to me. I consider that the business of the Louisiana State Lottery is conducted fairly, without partiality or favor.—Jonesburg (Mo.) Journal, September 8.

KENTON-GROVER NUPTIALS.

A Happy Event That United Prominent Families of Mason and Robertson Counties.The marriage of Willie Kenton, son of Hon.
E. Kenton Representative-elect of Robertson County, and Miss Della Grover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. London Grover, of Sardinia, has already been announced in the BULLETIN, but it remains for our Desha Valley correspondent to go on explaining and gather up a few shavings not found in the Clerk's office.
The marriage took place at the pretty home of the bride at 4 1/2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Dr. Anderson, of the M.-E. Church, South, tied the knot not only securely but with much grace and impressiveness.The bride wore a becoming costume of dark gray cloth trimmed in brown plush, bonnet to match, and seakins wrap. The bridesmaid, Miss Ollie Galbraith, was attired in a neatly-fitting green serge, trimmed in velvet, hat to match, silk astrakhan wrap. The bride and her maid of honor are cousins, with similar dispositions and very sweet manners.
Lawrence Kain, of Olivet, was the groom's best man.The parlor had been darkened and lighted with ornamental lamps.The bridal party seated in an open landau behind a hired span and followed by twenty-five vehicles filled with handsome girls and their gallant escort made an attractive show on the road, creating quite a sensation as they passed through the village of Sardinia.
The bridal cortege reached "Kenton" just as the sun had set, but the western horizon and the distant woodlands were aflame with the crimson fire of his reflected rays. The scene was romantic, and as the Olivet Cornet Band struck up "Home, Sweet Home," and Hon. E. Kenton and wife met and welcomed the coming guests, you may imagine for I cannot describe the happiness of all.At the Kenton mansion a very cordial and elegant reception was given from 8 to 10 o'clock. The entire house was brightly lighted and the spacious parlors warmed by old-fashioned wood fires, giving, as one of the guests remarked, a "moral grandeur" to the occasion. Very winsome and fascinating looked the bride in her evening toilet, a rich robe of black silk, jet trimmings. The new connections and at angles looked upon her loveliness with unqualified delight. The "old folks at home" were especially happy—her "beauty made them glad."The feast spread was abundant and most reliable so the hundred and eighty-eight guests voted as they retired from the banqueting hall. The waitresses were most charming ladies—Mrs. Fannie Woodward, Miss Lizzie Hill, Miss Annie Rice, Mrs. Lizzie Rice, Mrs.
Mary Kenton and Miss Julia Hall. Among the pleasant gentlemen are recalled the names of Messrs. Frank and Alfred Henson, Wade Meadows, Tom Mitchell, Mr. Young, Judge James Kenton and George Liville.The Sardinia band came later on and added their fifteen pieces to the Olivet twelve, and as they played in joint harmony "May Bell Polka" and "Hope Beyond," and good-bye to bride and groom to the dulcet notes of "Call Me Thine Own," the gay assembly adjourned sine die.

Coal.

Robert Ficklin has succeeded in getting one car-load of coal from Paris—about 500 bushels—which he will sell to those only who are in immediate need of fuel, at 18 cents, cash, delivered. It will be distributed among all and not sold to a few.

The Queen of Fame.

The people of this city are promised a most delightful entertainment at an early day, in "The Crowning of the Queen of Fame," to be given under the supervision of Mrs. Bessie Miller Oton. The characters to be represented will consist of persons famous in the world's history.
Mrs. Oton will be assisted by leading young ladies and gentlemen, of this place and Augusta, and a chorus of children.
The entertainment will be given on the night of November 24th.

Contractors in Trouble.

The Newport correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer says the railroad contractors on Huntington's new railroad are having trouble. About forty or fifty Italian laborers quit work Monday because the contractors did not pay them.
They all swore out attachments against the work that had been done by the contractors. The men at work on the new bridge over the Licking river have all quit work. They claim that they have not received any pay for six weeks, and there is no immediate sign of them getting any money for the work that they have done.

Cupid's Ospreys.

There were three bridal parties at Heiser's European Hotel this morning.
Abe McKol and his "best girl" came in on the noon train yesterday from Tilton, Fleming County. They were accompanied by a mutual friend, James M. Selby, of Hillsboro. In the afternoon they crossed the river, where "Squire" Beasley united the couple in the holy bonds of matrimony. The parties took in the sights of the city this morning and returned home on the noon train.At 4 o'clock this morning there arrived at the hotel two couples from Bath County. They had enjoyed an all-night's drive from near Owingsville. They were enroute to Aberdeen, and after a hearty breakfast, they lost no time in crossing the river. Robert W. Bean, agent of the National Benefit Society, and Mr. J. S.
Wilson, of Dover, accompanied them and gave the brides away. It was a double wedding, Miss Vena Barbour becoming Mrs. Jack Roice and Miss Peachie Warren, Mrs. James N. Wright.
